The history of Mother's Day is centuries old and goes back to the times of ancient Greeks, who held festivities to honor Rhea, the mother of the gods. The early Christians celebrated the Mother's festival on the fourth Sunday of Lent to honor Mary, the mother of Christ. Interestingly, later on a religious order stretched the holiday to include all mothers, and named it as the Mothering Sunday. The English colonists settled in America discontinued the tradition of Mothering Sunday because of lack of time. In 1872 Julia Ward Howe organized a day for mothers dedicated to peace. It is a landmark in the history of Mother's Day.

Read the poem that follows:

A Mother's Love

*A mother's love
Is always true
It's all you need
To get you through*

*A mother's love
Can seem like hate
She's only tough
To keep you safe*

*A mother's love
Is always there
In simple ways
She'll show she cares*

*A mother's love
Can never compare
With anyone else's Anywhere*

A mother's love
