One of our students from the N. Strathfield location has been awarded the Minister's Award for excellence in student achievement. Michael Talarico, one of the six nominated students by the Aristotelis Greek Language Education for an award, managed to achieve the best possible result due to his hard work, perseverance and maturity.

One of our students from the N. Strathfield location has been awarded the Minister's Award for excellence in student achievement. Michael Talarico, one of the six nominated students by the Aristotelis Greek Language Education for an award, managed to achieve the best possible result due to his hard work, perseverance and maturity.

The first paragraph of the letter sent to Michael from the Chair of the NSW Community Languages Schools Board reads as follows:

Congratulations! You are one of the ten students selected to receive the Minister's Award for Excellence in Student Achievement Community Languages School Students for 2006, for excellence in the study of Modern Greek, Italian.

Aristotelis Greek Language Education appears to have scooped the awards since all of its nominated students are now recipients of an award the names of which appear below:
